

NATHALIE CODIGNOLA, MLAW

IP Counsel – Trademarks,
Designs & Domain Names

Nathalie Codignola holds a Master degree in Business Law from Paris 1 la Sorbonne and the Master degree “Internet and IT systems” delivered by the University of Strasbourg in partnership with the CEIPI (Center for International Intellectual Property Studies).

For over 15 years, she managed significant global trademark and design portfolios in IP departments of Swiss-based international companies active in the tobacco, machinery and luxury watchmaking industry. In these positions, Nathalie particularly enjoyed being responsible for projects requiring IT skills and knowledge of worldwide processes related to IP, such as implementing and setting up new IP data and process management systems.

Nathalie loves cycling in Switzerland and thereby discovering its culinary and traditional specialties
